OAHCP ELECTS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AT ANNUAL RETREAT

Oklahoma City – Last week, the Oklahoma Association of Health Care Providers (OAHCP) named their 2015 Executive Committee. Tom Coble of Ardmore, and current American Health Care Association Vice-Chair, was selected as returning President of the Board for the coming year.

“We have a good group of officers who understand long term care. They are on the front lines every day taking care of residents and their families,” stated Rebecca Moore, Executive Director of OAHCP.

The remaining members of the executive committee included Tandie Hastings, CEO Companion Health Services of Guthrie, Board Vice-President; Mark Lietzke, CEO Image Health Care of Tulsa, Treasurer; and Scott Pilgrim, President & CEO of the Diakonos Group of Tulsa, Secretary.

Members of the OAHCP executive committee are elected annually by current members of the OAHCP Board during the OAHCP Fall Retreat Meeting.

About OAHCP

The Oklahoma Association of Health Care Providers represents the interest of more than 20,000 residents and 20,000 operators that work in Oklahoma’s long term care facilities. The mission of OAHCP is to assist its members in providing the highest quality care to Oklahoma’s frail and elderly who live in our facilities and to advocate for the enhancement of that care so that Oklahoma long term care residents may live in the comfort and dignity they so richly deserve.
