

RESIDENT ASSESSMENT COORDINATOR—CERTIFIED Advanced (RAC-CTA<sup>SM</sup>) CERTIFICATION

Take your experience to a high level with RAC-CTA certification

The Resident Assessment Coordinator - Certified Advanced (RAC-CTA<sup>SM</sup>) program is an advanced certification for clinical reimbursement leaders who are current RAC-CT holders. This new program provides advanced principles of clinical reimbursement, Medicare program compliance and integrity, RAI/MDS program integrity, leadership, ethical practice, managing medical review, accurate ICD-10 diagnosis coding, advanced strategies for payment oversight, and improving a facility's quality measurement in all CMS quality programs

Who should take this course? Whether you are a clinical reimbursement specialist in a regional, state, or national consultant, or are a professional in any aspect of MDS and Medicare compliance and oversight, this program will help you excel as a reimbursement leader. You must hold and maintain a current RAC-CT to qualify. The program includes 10 education components and 10 associated online exams. The three-day workshop is worth 22.5 CEs.

This workshop covers the following content from the RAC-CTA curriculum:

- Original Part A program requirements in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Documentation requirements in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- ICD-10-CM Coding in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Managing the Patient-Driven Payment Model in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Beneficiary Notices in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Consolidated Billing in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Medicare Part B Therapy in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Medical Reviews and oversight in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Federal Quality Initiatives in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist
- Leadership and Management of clinical reimbursement in a Skilled Nursing Facility for the Advanced Medicare Specialist

COURSE COMPLETION

You have one year from the date of registration to complete and pass all 10 exams before they expire.
